INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of July 20, 1907, you are advised that the applications, for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, have not been taken up for final consideration as the Court in its order of April 29, 1907, extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them, or to state how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 30,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

WLC.

Annie Dick was my wife. She died Nov. 9, 1908. She she died, I think. She was not living when the Immigrants were paid. Her mother drew then. Her name was Nancy

I do not know if her mother was married at the time of the Name Maudie South and children. Residence: T'aco, Texas.

Reasons: Claim Cherokee descent through her mother Lavinia Gross, who lived in Smyth Co., Virginia, far removed from the Cherokee domain and who was never enrolled. - and there is no testimony to show that she ever lived with the tribe or was recognized as being a member of the tribe at the time of the treaty of 1835-6 or since. Claimant's grand-mother Rachel Smith was never enrolled and unwilling to show Cherokee recognition or affiliation. Claimant herself, born in 1846 was not enrolled in 1851, nor was she recognized for allotment by the Dawes Commission. See Misc. Testimony, page 25-35. -

Misc.

Matilda South, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Matilda South? My age is 62 years. I live in Rogers Co., Okla. We came from Texas here. I claim Cherokee Indian blood. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission, but was rejected. I do not know on what ground I was rejected. I never got any money. I was not enrolled in 1851 that I know of. I was in East Tennessee in 1851. I claim through my mother's mother. My mother was a Gross before marriage and she married a Barlow. Her name was Lettie. They lived in Virginia. They never came West. They lived in Smith Co. Va. They were not enrolled. I cannot tell you why they were not enrolled. My mother got her blood from her mother, Rachel Smock. She lived in Virginia. Rachel Smock's mother was Lottie Baker. They all lived in Virginia but Lettie Baker was born in North Carolina. I was married in Tennessee, and came to Arkansas, and from there to Texas. I do not know whether any of my ancestors were enrolled. Chafin Barlow, Rachel Barlow, David Barlow, Jane Barlow, Thomas Barlow, Eliza Barlow, are my brothers and sister. My mother's sisters were: Ellen Gross married Dickson; Jim Gross, Mary Dick-inson, nee Gross; Lizzie Gross, Richard Gross, Barbra Gross. I cannot name any brothers and sisters of my grandmother. I have never associated with any other tribe. My people were parties to the treaties of 1835-6 and 1846.

Claims to be son
of Henry Smith, 1363 Chapman

Geo. Wright (1525) being recalled further testifies as follows:

Since my examination last Monday I have made further inquiry as to the name of my father and have learned that his name was Henry Smith. John Buckleroy told me this. John Buckleroy is a cousin of mine. He is related to me on my father's side. His mother and Henry Smith were brother and sister. I do not know his mother's name. He said his mother was a sister of Henry Smith. I think that John Buckleroy is about 12 or 14 years old. I am 65 years old being 67. Buckleroy is somewhere about 50. His cousin of mine 50 years of age knew more about the name of my father than I did myself. I thought my father's name was Henry Smith. My mother always said Henry or Henry Smith was my father. She was not married to Henry Smith. I do not know if Henry Smith was married then or not. I said just now that I thought Henry Smith's wife's name was Charlotte but I do not know what his wife's name was. I heard that Henry Smith was married. I saw Henry Smith two or three times. I do not know that he ever called me his son. I saw Henry Smith just after the war for the last time. He bought me a suit of clothes here at this place. I saw Ross Smith once or twice. I saw George or Ross Smith once about 13 years ago. Do not know which one it was. My mother married a man by the name of Bell. She married him before 1850 and they went to the Nation when they all went. He died and then she came back to this country. Do not know how long they lived out there. She married a man by the name of Wright when I was five or six years old. In 1851 I lived in Union County, Ga. I never received any money at that time but when I was recalled, my mother put me on the roll but do not know under what name. I have always carried the name of Wright. Bell was an Indian. I base my claim on what my mother told me as to who my father was.

Applicant's mother, Sallie Kell, or Sallie Wright, is stated to have been a white woman, and also a <sup>1/4</sup> ~~half~~-breed Cherokee. Applicant claims that he is an illegitimate child of Henry Smith, who was a Cherokee and enrolled by Chapman at #1363.

Applicant was born in 1844 and was not enrolled by Chapman, but was enrolled by Swetland on his "Removal and Subsistence Roll" on page 174 at #1815 as "George Washington Kell (son of Sallie Kell, restored on a petition and evidence of delegation)" and mentioned as "son of #1011 on Mullay Roll"; he was also enrolled by Swetland on his "general census roll of all Cherokees east" at #1618 as "George Washington Kell, age 26, son of Sallie Kell, one-quarter breed, widow of Andy Kell, father not known but supposed to be Wright."

Sallie Kell was enrolled by Mullay at page 112, #1011, age 48, "formerly wife of Andy Kell, one-quarter breed woman." She was also enrolled on Act of Congress Roll.

The paper designated as "Statement of an examination of the report and accompanying papers submitted by A. Chapman, Special Agent to take a census of Cherokees east claiming per capita allowance" on page 24, contains the following in regard

IN RE CLAIM OF GEORGE W. WRIGHT, NO. 1523.

Applicant's mother, Sallie Kell, or Sallie Wright, is stated to have been a white woman, and also a <sup>1/4</sup> ~~half~~-breed Cherokee. Applicant claims that he is an illegitimate child of Henry Smith, who was a Cherokee and enrolled by Chapman at #1363.

Applicant was born in 1844 and was not enrolled by Chapman, but was enrolled by Swetland on his "Removal and Subsistence Roll" on page 174 at #1815 as "George Washington Kell (son of Sallie Kell, restored on a petition and evidence of delegation)" and mentioned as "son of #1011 on Mullay Roll"; he was also enrolled by Swetland on his "general census roll of all Cherokees east" at #1618 as "George Washington Kell, age 26, son of Sallie Kell, one-quarter breed, widow of Andy Kell, father not known but supposed to be Wright." Sallie Kell was enrolled by Mullay at page 112, #1011, age 48, "formerly wife of Andy Kell, one-quarter breed woman." She was also enrolled on Act of Congress Roll.

The paper designated as "Statement of an examination of the report and accompanying papers submitted by A. Chapman, Special Agent to take a census of Cherokees east claiming per capita allowance" on page 24, contains the following in regard to applicant and his mother:

"Ins Timson is personally acquainted with Sallie Kell, who is married to Alsy Wright, a white man. She lived with Andrew Kell as his wife before the Treaty of 1835. She emigrated to Arkansas in 1834. Returned. She is a white woman. She had one child by Kell named Weeks Kell, who is on Siler's roll as Mix Kell. G. W. Lowdermilk has known her many years, even before she became the wife of Andrew Kell; knows that they lived together as man and wife. During the emigration under Curry took two companies of Indians to Calhoun to be taken to Arkansas. Sallie Kell and her son Weeks were among the number. She emigrated, the husband stayed behind. She returned after two years, but her husband did not live with her after that. Andrew Kell is a half-breed, but a member of the Cherokee Nation."

"Mr. Chapman states that Nancy and George are illegitimate, the latter said by his mother to be gotten by Henry Smith, the Cherokee; the others were born in wedlock. She, Sallie, has been married to Wright about fourteen years. It appears that this woman, white, was the wife of Andrew Kell, a member of the Cherokee Nation. Weeks or Mix Kell was the only issue of this marriage who was enrolled by Siler, and paid by Mr. Chapman. The question arises, is this woman, because of her connection with Kell and adoption by the Cherokee Nation as a member entitled to be enrolled and paid a per capita and also her children, after she returned from the West and ceased to live with Kell? There is no Cherokee blood in her or the children, except, perhaps, the illegitimate son of Henry Smith. Was she, after her return from the West, and is she now regarded as a member of the Cherokee Nation? There is no testimony on this point. The evidence is regarded as insufficient."

Madam:

Relative to application No. 1523, filed by you as attorney, on behalf of George W. Wright, please obtain from your client the following information and forward to this office:

1. Was your client's mother enrolled in 1851, and if not, why?
2. Was your client ever enrolled as a son of Harry Smith, and was he a Cherokee Indian?

Give any other information you may be able to obtain tending to support this claim.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

FST/BLD.

George W. Wright being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 63 years of age and live in Fannin Co., Ga. I claim y Indian descent on my father's side; my mother is a white woman.
 I think both of my father's parents claimed Indian. My father was 1/2 Cherokee. My father was born and raised in Cherokee Co., N.C., I think. My father used to be an interpreter for the Indians. My father and mother were not married. My mother said that I belonged to Harry Smith. ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ I went with my mother to Murphy, N. C. since the war and saw Harry Smith and they were paying off the Indians at that time - a man by the name of Swetland was paying off the Indians. My father at that time bought me a suit of clothes and recognized me as his son. He moved away from N. C. when I was about five years old. My mother then married a man by the name of Wright and that's how I got that name.
 My mother enrolled me when I was about ten years old. I think she enrolled me on the Hester roll before I was grown. That was in Cherokee Co., N.C., about Murphy. Don't know what name she enrolled me under. I went by the name of Kell until she married Wright, and then I took the name of Wright. I have no full brothers and sisters, but I have three half brothers but they were never on any roll. I never went by the name of Smith. I had a half brother named William Kell. We always called him ~~XXXXXX~~ Wix Kell. He was five or six years older than I. He was on the Malay roll, I think. I think he was living in Tenn. in 1851. He lived in Union Co., Ga. a while. I never received any money from the government.
 My father always went by the name of Harry Smith. He had ~~no~~ no Indian name that I know of. My full name is George Washington Wright.
 Andrew and Alexander Kell are sons of William Kell, my half brother, ~~and sometimes known as Wix.~~ Alexander Kell's middle name is Francis. ~~My father was a member, was living in Beaver Dam Creek, N.C.~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Susan Kell is a sister of Andrew Kell. James Lafayette Kell is a brother to Andrew Kell.
 Wix Kell was called Weeks Kell some times. In 1884 I was living in Fannin Co., Ga. next to the Polk County line. My father from the first time I ever heard of him lived with the Indians as an Indian.
 Never heard of my father being on any roll. I think I was in Union Co., Ga in 1851. Don't know my father's parents' names; never heard of them. My wife is white.

Andrew Kell being first duly sworn in behalf of Geo. W. Wright,

That I am 43 years of age and live in Fannin Co., Ga. I am acquainted with Geo. W. Wright. He is my half uncle on my grandmother Kell's side. My father and he are half-brothers, on the mother's side. My father's name was William Kell and he went by the name of Wix or Weeks Kell. I knew the man who was said to be the father of applicant. All the name I ever heard him have was Harry Smith. I never saw him but once and that was about 20 years ago at Yellow Hill, Swain Co., N. C. He was there at the Cherokee council. I talked with him and he spoke of my grandmother, Geo. Wright's mother and he asked me if she was still alive. He did not say anything about the applicant nor whether his mother was ever his wife. He looked to be a full blood. He was living there with the Indians. This council was about some government money and I was sent from here to that place as a delegate to represent the Indian blood here. He was taking part in the council there and was recognized as an Indian. Don't know whether he is living or dead now. I have heard my grandmother say that Harry Smith was the father of Geo. W. Wright. Never heard her say anything about Harry Smith or George Wright being on any roll. Never heard her say anything about any of them receiving any money from the government. Jack Ply at Yellow Hill, N. C. might know something about applicant's father. Jack Ply has a son Jim Ply and he was the interpreter in the council when I was there. He was living at Yellow Hill with his father at that time.

 write or send me a letter of Reflection Mr Clark
 it can be proved by good honest creditable people

Nothing is in the papers of Humphrey that shows where Miller was and nothing in the papers that he was sent to any particular & he went to England
 because they let them back up & hold a secret committee of just such people as they wanted to have <sup>to have</sup> the fact when the man Bell says he was
